

CONSULTING SERVICES

ACCESS Programs has established a significant reputation for effective consulting services. These services are designed to provide support to managers at all levels, with particular emphasis on advice relating to human resource issues.

ACCESS Programs consultants have expertise based on professional qualifications and years of experience working with individuals and organisations to resolve issues and build positive workplaces.

ACCESS Programs can provide a seamless, integrated range of consulting services.

A major advantage of this is the fact that individuals affected by organisational issues can also receive support. This is a unique benefit which can reduce the potential for distress and ensure ongoing productivity as well as individual wellbeing.

Components include:

- Organisational climate audits
- Life balance programs
- Change management support
- Staff feedback systems
- Team building
- Performance management
- Employee or customer focus groups
- Employee opinion surveys

ACCESS Programs consultants can also assist with:

- Career planning
- Facilitation of team development processes to improve organisational outcomes
